BACKG STORY

Thaerus, a Genasi, struggled to find her place in a society that sees and values her differently. That look of most Genasi, who abandoned their parent (or father) to find a better life. Instead, she abandoned her mother to find a monastery where she could travel freely.

Grov, a Genasi, excelled in training and more practice of fighting. She preferred a spear. On occasion, she secretly hid her story from the village because she was settled with children. Water Djinn, somehow, other in the village.
