BACKGROUND STORY

Needless to say, Nagata aren't known for the navy. Yet that isn't that Orcs aren't sea-Born and raised by the Yellow Teeth tribe in Northern Wastes of Kalauzumar [Any Real Wasteland], Nagata taught in swamp navigation and ever in how to navigate the more shallow seas than the Wastelands. An amtyoung man, he dreamed of a life on the seas, he knew this would be possible within the confines of his tribe. Although he tried his hands at engineering various war machines, his tribe and was quite talented at it, he couldn't possibly come to his dreams of living life on the high-seas. Although he loved his people, he loved the sea more. After yet another unnecessarily violent raid by his tribe on a sea-side frontier town they made there way back towards the black swamps they deemed their home. Nagata was dismayed. He took a quick look around at the crew, made a brood and clearly unsuspicious gesture towards the starboard bow of the ship and whistled clearly (a known call for his shipmates) and then made a deliberate and unnoticeable dash to the port side of the ship diving off quietly into the water. Nagata swam to shore unnoticed and sat on his knees. He ran his fingers through the sand, muttering, "dear sea, you have me".
