Role-Playing

Improv

Introduction: Zirrash'ka will often be found overseeing any remarkable events in a town or city, writing everything down; Approaches adventurers for a version of their story of meeting and adventure

Appearance: Impossibly gaunt with cloud-like flowing hair

Expressions: "One moment while I record this for the ancients"; "Jergel must be informed"

Mannerisms: Deep and gruff voice. Will challenge others much like a sherriff. He will almost without exception return any and all conversations to whatever task is immediately at hand and insist on following it through and dress it.

Acting

Motivations: To maintain a written history of the deceased and scribe a story of how they lived. He believes that the written word is superior to any other form of recording histories of peoples.

Passions: Knowledge, especially written. He believes that knowledge and courage combined are the ebst if not the only means of overcoming troubles. His love for books and tomes is unmatched. His deity, Jergel, guides his every move.

Secrets:

Vulnerabilities: He is over-committed to his monastic library to a fault, often following the word of his high priests without question; even if it seems obviously morally questionable to others.

Special Abilities: Extra Attack | Stunning Strike | Deflect Missile | Cleric Spells - 0: Light, Guidance, Resistance; 1: Bless, Cure Wounds, Healing Word, Sanctuary; 2: Aid, Enhance Ability, Hold Person; 3: Dispel Magic, Spiritual Guardians | Martial Arts

Special Equipment:

- Decanter of Endless Water; Quill of Endless writing.

Long escaped from the control of Mind Flayers, Zirrash'ka and his tribe also fled the plane of Limbo [Any non-material plane] and integrated themselves among villages of elves on the rim of known civilization. Quietly keeping to themselves and continuing their gratitude towards their patrons, his tribe thirsted for knowledge of the material plane. They formed a monastic tradition that offered worship and tithing to Jegel, the God of Scribes and Depositioner of the Passed (Or any Deity overlooking the passing of the living to the Dead). They pledged to keep track of all those denizens that once lived, how they lived, and when, how, where, and why they died. Over the decades they developed an advanced library and monastery, training their monks in the value of knowledge, gratitude, courage, and direct action.
