Stella's amputation.
Several years later, Stella opened her own house of "seamstresses" high on a hill surrounded by the homes of the wealthy and powerful. As a seamstress, she has been in the pockets of most of the town's elite, including the constabularies who hound her continually for unpaid taxes. Stella's mansion on the hill is widely regarded to be the classiest brothel in town, and is of some repute even several towns down the road. She keeps her ladies fit and gorgeous, and trains them in upper class etiquette, psychology and identifying peculiar fetishes.
Though Stella is no longer active as a "seamstress" herself, she still hears every item of upper class news, gossip, and secrets that there is to hear. Stella knows everything about just about every wealthy and/or noble man in town. She is always happy to gossip, though she does also know the value of a thing, and knows when to charge, and how much to charge.
