BACK STORY

Warsoc's

powerful and brutal war parties. He has a little stomachache of his clan, he was in a raiding party with teens and married in town. He found out he had lied and was immediately feared for his return, he decided to defend his name. He came of age and joined The Watch. He is not very confident in his skills, smart but not really, but his sergeant thinks he is becoming a sergeant. He is loyal and not very assertive. He is an officer, but he was in a band for most of his life. He has developed a hatred for the children of the city, denied as a commoner. He has amassed quite a bit of his small band.
