She is the daughter of Anastasia Dumas. Her husband was murdered by her son and she was forced to bear a daughter with a Greater Devil. None of her spells can effect any of her blood relatives.

Background Story

Delores Dumas is the Daughter of Anastasia Dumas and mother of Nicodeamus and Irini Dumas. Delores grew up under her mother's cruel thumb and was prone to rebellion. At the age of 19 she met Saul Branstock and soon became pregnant, giving birth to her first child, Nicodeamus. Upon his birth, he was immediately taken from her by her grandmother and Saul helped her flee from her family. Her and Saul lived happily for many years though she always missed her son. One day a young familiar stranger arrived at their home. This stranger proceeded to put her in chains, gun down her husband and burn down their home. On their way back to the family home Delores was horrified to learn that this cold-hearted youth was in fact, Nicodeamus, all grown up. This event was the first large blow to her sanity. Her vicious son tortured and tormented her the entire way back to the ancestral family home. Once she was home, the family kept her locked and chained away in the basement shrine to their master. After several months chained in solitude, Anastasia offered up her daughter as tribute to the family patron. The devil took Delores to his realm and impregnated her, shattering her mind completely and irrevocably. Upon her return, now thoroughly mad, Delores gave birth to a daughter, half human, half devil. Anastasia named her Irini and promised her to Nicodeamus. In her madness, the horrifying things she has experienced have also given her a kind of clairvoyance and has made her a prophet of sorts. She regularly has vision, omens and portents of things to come and events happening far away. Because of this, the family has kept her alive and prisoner in their sanctum. Delores frequently escapes from her prison, often at the expense of her own health, and often leads the rest of the family on a merry chase, but is always captured again and brought back to her prison. Anastasia also uses Delores' blood as a regular offering to the family patron, each time giving more of her soul to the master.
