Life in the gnomish city of Abera Caandu is always lively - filled with tinkering, products wobbling about and wondrous inventions that would amaze even the most experienced traveler. The gnomes of this city have always accepting of all other races and inter-racial marriage and offspring are not uncommon. Portius is a product of this accepting community and raised in their meticulously productive and innovative cultural practices.

Known from their youth that they were not only a mixed race person but also gender fluid, Portius possessed powerful qualities of both masculinity and femininity. With close-cut cropped hair and a muscular, broad build, they seem tomboyish, their graceful hands and attention to details in their work, appearance, and environment - not a feminine edge.

As they matured, they took on the best of each race. They chose not to tinker, per se, at least not with 'inventions' but instead with the biology of peoples. They took the role of a doctor easily and quickly became the community's go-to for anything that would ailing them. They also picked up on the talents of the local Dwarven community and learned the sophisticated methods of rectification - distillation and producing fine spirits. In addition, their sharp edge and attention to detail led to their
