BACKGROUND STORY

Reina was cursed as a young child, possibly for something her outlander parents did. She was given the Curse of the Forgotten, which allows only characters with high perception (16) to even see her and only characters with exceptional perception (19+) to remember she exists if they are directly looking at her. This helped left Reina to raise and fend for herself from a young age. She longs for friends and connection while doing what she needs to survive. She longs to return to her barbarian clan that forgot her child but lives on city streets as a pick pocket and thief. What Reina doesn't know about herself is a very dangerous secret for everyone.... Reina is The Wraith. Her curse is actually a spell put on her by a spymaster of the assassin guild at the same time that he murdered her tribe and created her split personality. When her skills are needed a simple subliminal phrase brings out The Wraith, the realms deadliest assassin, and Reina never remembers a thing.
