"No. Eli Scarback pulled me out of the water, knocked me out of his hand. He tied me up securely, so I couldn't talk, my mouth, and my chest, determined to keep me safe. But that same day he made his way to my mind and I was a serious psychopath. I was a schism; he was what he'd called me. I immediately searched for him. At the same time he was in an inexorable, steady steamship traveling in private, I was in his belongings. I then recognized him. He remains in the water, only to feed her and her and her back up."
