BACKSTORY

No one knows how Scheuchzeri came to be in the town. Some say he was always there, a well-placed spectacle by the wharf. Others say he was brought by the town crier, The Boastful Newt, as a day's entertainment. Whatever the case, he has become a part of the town's life. He is always there, croaking and waving, a familiar sight to all who pass by. Some say he is a simple creature, a well-placed spectacle. Others say he is a polymorphous being, capable of taking on many forms. Whatever the case, he is a part of the town's life.
