BACKG STORY

Raised in a household of a substantial money passed on to him, grew up with a high life after the death of his father. Weston Jr., a man in the exporting business, took Weston years to build his business. Couple of years later, Weston's gambling habits led to a terrible alcohol problem, illicit substances, and it all ended with him being on the border of bankruptcy. He was at the utmost appearance among parties, sponging off the lot of money.
