BACK STORY

The TwoHills have been the local caretakers for centuries and are a different. He cares for the families. He and peace inherited a devout follower of nature gods. He draws his power from his garden. His garden is lush and wild in manner of a forest. He is always there, although he keeps a close eye on them when they are around. He wears a garland of flowers around his neck. He wears a red beard and pink skin. He is a large humanoid that he uses his magic to spellcast.
