BACKSTORY

Kablam's memory is hazy, but she remembers that took her first steps wandering the streets on her own. She made her first impression while trying to steal food for her family. She scouted around the guild members and the Thieve's Guild, observing the nature of their quickly trading various services within the guild. Her goal was to make her own name as a pickpocket, but she makes her own path and forger. She's told a lot of stories, but she's well.
