BACKGROUND STORY

Hickle has worked long and hard to build his skill and mastery at clockwork toy making and to build his business. He's a very lovely fellow and loves bringing a smile to children's faces. He tries to improve with each new toy, making his clockwork creatures more and more lifelike with every new design. When he's not building toys to sell in his store/shop he spends his time on his secret project, a clockwork man that he's been building and upgrading for years. He dreams of one day unveiling his clockwork being to the world and receiving the renown he has longed for all his life.
