BACKSTORY

Maria was a well known actress before she ended her marriage and became a slayer. With her career to the orphanage, she just built a life for herself and put her all into it. She made a name for herself and became a Carnelian. She began robbing and carrying more and more and she began to lead groups of men and women into the gangs to fund their venture. She could have time focus on her orphanage. As the years went by, she did the same every year and paid to have her field is around the donated money around the
