ROLEPLAYING

Introduction

Irtano is a wanderer looking to display his talents. He often disrupts busy market places or taverns to show off his strength and abilities. In return he offers healing or blessings.

Appearance

Standing 8' tall, Irtano is an imposing figure with gray skin and vertical curling patterns of red and orange over his entire body; he wears a long mohawk of deep ruddy red hair; he is never without his great-axe in hand; various pelts adorn his body like trophies

Expressions

"We always have better things to do and this situation would suggest so"; "I've no time for petty squabbles - strength and courage absolves us of such frivolities"; "An age of enlightenment is upon us and it will require strength of body and character";

Mannerisms

Unless in combat, Irtano moves slowly and deliberately; He uses his touch gently with most and often reaches out an imposing hand to reassure others;

Motivations

This talented giant is far from modest and is always seeking others' celebrations of his strength and prowess. He is also inherently motivated to promote and support the talents and skills of others.

PERSONALITY

The Goliaths of Gond'Qor are known as devout followers of Re, the God of Hooves and Horns [A Central Goliath Deity]. These religious peoples promote strength and fortitude in their followers and advocate for supporting the strengths and good in others. Raised in this complex ritualistic community, Irtano developed a strong set of powers, abilities, skills, and an even stronger set of ethics about how to treat himself and others. This also imbued him with high expectations as to how others ought to treat him.

The Order of Re have set missionary goals whereby they accomplished acolytes out into the Realms to aid in building up the 'lesser-thans' and promote their code of interconnected support. Irtano was selected as one such acolyte and sent forth to display strength and abilities and to promote the Order's code of a Realm-wide brotherhood of strength and support.
