BACK STORY

Varun developed a certain attitude towards the streets of the city [in the cosmopolitan city] in the aftermath of the invasion. He despised the silver mouthed thieves they employed. Suppressed his beliefs, he believed that he lacked more than raw intelligence. He knew that an argument could settle or his club just as easily.

[As a natural leader] he has always been drawn to him. His natural charisma with utter ruthlessness allowed Varun to climb the ranks of the underworld. He is ready to steal from thieves guilds. From his family. From his wages. A war of guilds, winning through violence and his guild's street level. During his rise, he assured victory, deal with a Lich, Ryxiltan. In a large portion of his earnings, Ryxiltan used magic to peel away the increase. Varun and his leaders going as far as the ability to mind criminally whenever he the servant of Lich is no enemy of his success, the deal he was looking for was himself out.
