The TwoHills clan has been the local Firbog tribe's caretakers the dead for centuries and Do is no different. He genuinely loves the dead and their families, loves the quiet and peacefulness of his inherited profession. He is a devout follower of the nature Lallanis and draws his powers from her. His garden and chapel are lush and well kept, with all manner of flora and fungi. He is always welcoming, although he always keeps a close eye on the Firbolgs when they're around. He wears a garland of flowers that he weaves around his neck at all times as a holy symbol that he uses as his spellcasting focus.
