Background Story

Uha "Boomer" Bannock was enamored with fire at a very early age. Not an unusual thing for Viashino, but him moreso than most. Very early he began experimenting with combustibles and heading down the path of an alchemist. At the age of 12 one of his experiments went awry and burned down his house, killing his entire family, yet he managed to escape without a scratch. In an effort to atone for his fatal mistake he began to use his skills against beings that he considered evil. Monsters, fiends, undead. As an extension of his alchemical pursuits, he stumbled his was into discovering and mastering firearms. During a failed attempt to take out a den of ghouls, Boomer was found, being overwhelmed, by The Phantom, who saved his life and invited him to join his fledgling organization. Finding a new focus for his guilt, he happily joined The Dead Hunters and devoted his life to the gods of good and building towards his redemption.
