ROLEPLAYING

Introduction

Khedoldosh maintains a tent/hut at the outskirts of a market or tavern district with a sign above the entrance that glows with faint magical energy and reads, "TELLINGS". It can also be found slowly and carefully wandering from alleyway entrance to alley entrance. It may approach a group to ask for their help to obtain glyphs or sigils of farsight and offer to divulge important information in return.

Appearance

A tiny, beholder - the runt of the litter that were summoned that day, you could say - that never developed properly; drapes a cloak over itself and uses well-crafted fake arms and its innate magical capacity to operate them as though real; Perception check (DC 22) allows a person to notice this is not a humanoid; She leans her body to one side, her right, showing her one gleaming working eye while she has a prosthetic that remains closed to represent her left eye; her remaining eyes are all underdeveloped or dead and stay limp, tied into a ponytail along with her prosthetic hair

Expressions

"You've always got time to see the future, lad/lass. Take a minute to hear what Khedoldosh can offer"; "What can you see? I promise it cannot compare to my eye"; "How often are you offered a glimpse of your fate?"; "Only those who choose blindness over clarity of vision are truly lost..."

PERSONALITY

In the battle of Granite Wa [any great historical battle in recent time], an old orcish warlock, Gryt Tooth of Mahl, w faced with certain death at the hands of an incoming legion of the Elves of ThistleCloud [Any Major Elven City]. He turned to last resort: an old summoning scroll that was tattered. In desperation facing the encroaching legion, the warlock uttered as many words as he could read from the scroll and performed whatever gestures could make out to cast the spell. Flashes of light and shadow burst from nowhere, colliding in mid-air in a cloud of grainy black mist that congealed into the form of a creature in the eyes of every beholder. However, the scroll had been damaged badly and the verbal and somatic components were thus distorted. The unfortunate result was an undeveloped creature, Khedoldosh, who glanced around with its only working eye, realized the imminent danger, and darted off into the hills. Needless to say, Gryt Tooth didn't live much longer.
