BACK STORY

Thaerus was born in a small village and, like many Genasi, she was often seen as an outcast. Her parents, a pair of Cryxistmal, were once part of a monastic order that sought to bring peace to the world. However, their beliefs were too radical, and they were eventually banished from the village. Thaerus, born into this world, has a deep understanding of the struggles of her people and a strong desire to see them thrive.

Thaerus's story is one of resilience and discovery. She grew up in a world where her people were often looked upon with suspicion. Despite this, she found a sense of purpose in her journey to find her lost village. Her experiences have shaped her into a person who is both compassionate and determined. She believes that there is still hope for the world, and she is willing to do whatever it takes to bring about a better future for everyone.
