The community loves to develop the finest of all things pleasurable, from candies to sexual events, from the most exotic crossbred fruits to the jams made from those fruits. They use as fillings in a wondrous delicacy. The population of Yeilumph holds the belief that these indulgences are the answer to life's troubles.

Enter Cruda. A young halfling woman who loved a good slice of Sylvan Nut Bread with Apple butter for breakfast every morning, followed by a tart Flumberry Dessert and a good swig of Pine Brew Cider to wash it all down. Her love for pastries and breads meant that she spent most of her time at the local bakery interacting with the baker and all of her staff. Slowly but surely, Gruda learned the trade. Along the way she also uncovered new methods of growing grains to produce different colors and textures. The innovation was so spectacular for the shop and the trade in general that the people nicknamed her, "Wheatsheaf".
