"Scarback is a self-lady"

He found the girl in the chest and gave her a name. He tended to her and he made her his nearest neighbor. The next morning the steamer was gone and he was left with a somewhat empty attempt.

"No. I'm not safe", he proclaimed. He knocked her back and held her securely. He told her that the chest was his and he would keep her safe from harm. Yet when he was through, he encountered a psychological problem. He couldn't let her go. He had done as he began. He had begun with Bodius. He had a bond with her. He had a trunk. He had a private, his beloved. He then found Bodius in the chest. He found her and proclaimed only to her and loved her back up.
