causing a searing light to emanate from the blade. The light glows with a deep warm yellow in the center of the blade sharpening to a brilliant white at the edge of the blade's cutting surface and sheds bright light in a 40 foot radius and dim light for an additional 40 feet. While the weapon is incandescent it deals an extra 2d6 radiant damage to any target it hits. The radiance lasts until you use a bonus action to speak the command word again or until you drop or sheathe the weapon.

BACKGROUND Story

Orcish raids certainly aren't limited to Western Realms. As the orcs expand their grip on the land through broad diasporas above and below ground, the far-east has experienced similar challenges. Plunder, pillage, bloodshed, and unfortunately, rape, are all among the impacting factors. Reed is a product of these raids. Raised in a semi-noble house of militant samurai, Reed's natural abilities became apparent to his family and their samurai masters. He was a natural fit for their training and military crusades. Over time, Reed's clan spread far and wide in their explorations and claims to various regions. His son has become that of a wanderer. Make no mistake, however, because Reed is not a Ronin. He stands devout in his devotion to his family and their military objectives, acting as a diplomat, messenger, and trader of their fine goods.

Often receiving mass imports from his home, he busies his days refining and sophisticating his market booth and managing his inventory to best provide an authentic experience of his culture.
