BACKGROUND STORY

Nobody can be sure how Scheuschzeri ended up in the ponds. But everyone knows that he hears the best of the news because he's always treading water in a well-placed pond. Scheuschzeri spends most of his time in deep waters by the wharf in the sea-frontier village of Griptight Kee [Any Seaside Trading Village] overlorded by the pirate baron The Bold. He spends daytime hours skipping out of the wharf into the various marshy puddles that characterize the paths of the village, overhearing conversations. He's become so attuned to these interactions and the value of the content to others that he often positions himself in the best spot to overhear the best possible information.How did Scheuschzeri become this? Nobody is completely certain. Some claim that he was once a pirate who had fallen in love with a Siren at sea and upon his attempt to capture her heart she laughed in his face and banished him to the pond and wharf-side. Others tell a story of how it was his own choice; that he is actually a powerful sorcerer who grew tired of his capabilities and cast this polymorph on him in reverence of the greater society.
