BACKGROUND STORY

Ezio's people were a cult who worshipped one of the Great Old Ones, a Forgotten God. His father chose this because they witnessed the fascist matriarchical hierarchy of Lolth [Or similar Evil Drow God]. Alongside this, the tribe heard rumors and saw evidence that the Great Old Ones were on the rise to reclaim their positions of power over the material and astral planes. The great Jackal Irtt, the Lord of Hunger, Thirst, Famine and Drought, and Moander, the Lord of Growth and Decay [Two Forgotten Gods] are separate entities surging forward into the hear and minds of those in the underdark and those few clans who wander the middle-ground between the upperworld and Underdark. faith and tithings to Ommen-I [A different Forgotten God], the goddess of Shadow and Time.

Because of their growth in size and relative power, other apostatic clans who followed other Old Gods became violent towards Ezio's tribe. One fate night, the followers of Irrt summoned aspects of the deity to the material realm to strike. Massive jackals with gnashing teeth and almost rotted skin hanging loosely from their frames were unleashed on Ezio's village.

Demon hounds descended on the Undergroun city of Daur'zzwth (Dar-zooth), any Drow or Underdark village that Ezio and his people called home. One of these great demon hounds sought out Ezio's father and uncle especially, invaded their home, and assaulted the family. Ezio's father, Ziirr'kho (Zee-rick-oh) and uncle Ras'kl (Raz-kill- non) bravely fought the beast, bringing it near death, but both Drow heroes were left close to death themselves. A young Ezio, terrified and protecting his youth in the basement of the home, silently dashed out of the cellar trap-door to grasp his father's powerful shortsword. The demon hound circled, smelling victory, and, due to injury and pride, did not sense Ezio lurking in the shadows around the outside of the room. Drooling and snapping its jaws in naïve gleam, the beast slowly approached the two men. Ezio leapt from the shadows and sunk the blade close into the beast's eye, killing it. He has since been a family hero. The tribe has taken it upon themselves to train him as an Assassin and Diplomat and send him forth into the Upperworld to cause chaos and make way for their rise to power.
