BACKSTORY

When Samuel was born, something terrible happened in the mountains. A friend of his father, a militia leader, was killed. Samuel's father was home on a mission and turned to a person who knew the way to the tavern where the bard. Samuel was in both worlds: dreams and reality. A few years later, Samuel hadn't received any news from the clergy as to what happened. He was either dead or he was through with life. One thing was certain: that he does not want to be a Family is for youth in the small town who are violent and they learned quickly how to exchange safety or security for more, and when they have even more, they are per se, was not conditioning by the clergy, separatist society of scared, followed by the and desperate priestesses and subject the questionable modification of their sleep. To remove the contempt from and replace and hope. Like they had created in the minds of pigs. Upon receiving the clergy during Samuel's vow, only one thing advanced him world.
