austere and deprived conditions. Families were broken and scattered. Vowing to one day return and bring people back to their glory, Thane fled for weeks searching for a civilization within which to begin his life anew and share the ethical codes of his people with the world at large.Thane's inborn work ethic gained traction within village markets and it wasn't long before he had accrued enough coin to begin planning to return to his people. His connections to the people with whom he resettled excite him at the potential that he will not return to his home alone.
