Background Story

Sister Uriah Quartz grew up poor in the rougher parts of town. She learned the ways of the Rune Knight from her family, but once she went out on her own, things went south fast. Out of work and out of money she ended up turning to prostitution. One night while working in a brothel, a vampire paid the establishment a visit. While the beast was ravaging its way through the house, Uriah used her Rune Magic to surprise and slay the monster. That night she felt the blessing of the moon goddess for the first time and used her blessing to heal all of the other girls ravaged by the vampire and prevent them from turning. Feeling her new calling, she left her life of sin and joined a convent devoted to the goddess. She learned the ways of the Twilight Clerics and devoted her life to ridding the world of fiends and the undead. After 200+ years of fighting the forces of darkness, she has become one tough old bird and is not to be trifled with. In her tenure, she repeatedly crossed paths with The Phantom, eventually leaving the convent to join his Dead Hunters full time.
