BACK STORY

On the far side of the world, in the Realm of the East, there are many great cities and kingdoms. Reed is a merchant from one of these cities, a city known for its martial prowess. Reed's nature is stoic and disciplined, a result of his upbringing in a samurai family. He has a natural fit for military campaigns and is often seen leading raids. Raised in a house of martial discipline, Reed's nature is apparent to all who meet him. He is a samurai master, a natural fit for military campaigns. Over time, he has spread far and wide, exploring various regions and becoming a trusted ally. Make no mistake, because Reed is a samurai master. He stands for devotion to military objectives, a diplomat, a trader of the East. Often, he imports from the East, busy with his sophisticated management and best providing experience.
