ROLEPLAYING

---

Introduction

---

Passing through a local fair, a rippled centaur stands behind a dias with the word 'Recruiting' etched on its front.

Appearance

---

He is a massive built soldier with a brown and white-dappled horses body with a ripped, muscular, tanned human head and torso with matching brown hair on his head. He wears full ceremonial armor and carries a longbow and a spear

Expressions

---

Ho there brave adventurer! Have you considered joining the City Watch?, "Halt! Intruder!"

Mannerisms

---

He seems to incessantly canter in place while reciting his recruitment. He does have a fantastic public speaking voice though

Motivations

---

He's motivated by honor and glory. By making his tribe and family proud and living up to the example of his ancestors

Passions

---

Hes passionate about the army, BOY is he passionate about the army!

Secrets

---

Background

---

His family has a long history of military service and trained his whole life to follow in his ancestors footsteps. He joined up the day he turned of age and has never looked back. Advancing through the ranks quickly and his devotion and natural charisma made him a prime candidate for recruiting officer. Baruvo loves his job
