BACK STORY

Raised in a household of substantial money which he passed away from. He grew up with a high life. After the death of his father Weston Jr., a brilliant man in the exporting business, he took Weston's years to run the business. He and a couple of his friends got into gambling, terrible gambling, and alcohol and substance abuse. He adds up to being flat broke, bordering on bankruptcy. He still doesn't keep up appearances, flits among parties and sponging off people. He can grift a lot of people's money.
