BACKSTORY

Warsoc is a powerful and brutal warrior. With little experience in violence or war, he found that he was hated and his heritage, like his new home, was a place of abandoned hope. He came of age in the City Watch. He is not very confident in his skills, small and else really, and sergeant slowly became a watchman. He earned his money as an assertive fighter. He's working was part of most of his life. He developed children's toys, denied as a small, amassed a small fortune in his small
