Tanarol works hard to keep the premise that order and loyalty are his duty to his cell. But what he really feels is the feeling of control that he has over the opportunity his naturally aggressive tendencies give him. He is a petty tyrant with a quick temper and a bit of a cowboy. In charge of the cell. Like most bullies, he quickly backs down to self-preservation presented with a real threat. He is a natural fighter rather than a negotiator. He's outmatched.
