ROLEPLAYING

Introduction

A robed dragonborn, gnarled hound, and equipped militia stroll from the castle gates. "What business have ye here?"

Appearance

Green, polished scales. Tendril locks of grey hair. Cloudy yellow eyes. Fine magistrate robes.

Expressions

"The regals are on travel-time. If you have business, it is with me", "Our time is valuable. Make it quick."

Mannerisms

Hands clasped. Cloudy eyes strain to see clearly. Small but effective gestures. Slight limp in right leg.

Motivations

To serve the noble family for whom he serves as castellan and deputy. Ensure all taxes and scutages are paid, always.

Passions

Gold. Power. He seeks to replace his benefactors eventually.

Secrets

Has begun an underground rebel faction to replace the royals of the region.

BACKGROUND STORY

With nothing but selfish goals, Wureok has the local guild of Magic Arts and, with exceptional cunning and charisma, worked his way into an internship with the castellan. Using his raw magicks and ability to influence others, he ousted the castellan, convincing the noble family they served was an imposter - a foreigner looking to undermine their power.Gaining the trust of the royals over decades and generations, Wureok has, at least on the surface, appeared to be an exemplary court official. He watched the castle and surrounding villas with attention to detail; especially when it came to collecting taxes and scutage.He organized a growing rebel faction among the peasants and townsfolk, using the pretense of himself applies to turn them against his benefactor, then twisting the stories of corruption in reports to his benefactor. He then used this as a further reason for his position, for the exploitation of the common-folk, and the need for his family to further insulate themselves from the outside world.
