BACK STORY

Thaerus was born in a small Genasi settlement on the outskirts of a large city. She was the only child of a Genasi father and a human mother. Her mother was a traveling merchant, and she was raised in a small village. Thaerus was always a bit of an outcast, but she was a strong and brave girl. She was always looking for adventure, and she was always looking for a place where she could belong. She was always looking for a place where she could make a difference. She was always looking for a place where she could be a hero.
