BACKSTORY

He grew up in a small city and lived a simple life. In his early teens, he accompanied his family to a distant land for trade. There, he saw a fire while the city was avoided it, he was irresistibly drawn to it. He has loved fire since then. However, he was accidentally burned while trying to play with the fire. He constantly tried to feed his fire, but he was not allowed to. He was uncomfortable and avoided fire. He was the most Triton to love fire.
