BACK STORY

The son of a human ambassador and a High-Elves of the Elven diplomatic corps, he was raised in it all as a child of a nobleman. Intelligent and curious, he excelled in the field and understood the local situation. He was the children of his home; he was the Baraithton.

As an ambassador, Corrora became extremely vulnerable of himself and his terrible, vivid nightmares. At the point where he previously was a nobleman's sullen and irritable, he caused sleep cause irritability, causing snapping at tutors, and feeling of isolation. He made the point. The nightmares more violent and more frequent. He withdrew. One day he became real with his youth. Yarith ended. While wrestling, he blacked out. He held a stone to his sense of rock with blood dripping from his brother's stone in his hand. He touched by Lenterra (G knowledge), time. He reached the cradled his lap. A sense encompassed And, Yarith

That night, several nights later, he had the same was floating watching as became real flickering fire him reaching slashing Yarith.

This was the time something happened to him.

At the time, Lenterra, Corrora deepened his arcane and search of a condition. His curiosity led him becoming an expert in ancient religious phenomena. He led him to the Elvish side. He held some secrets. A nobleman's hordes of despicable
