talents. He often disrupts busy market places or taverns to show off his strength and abilities. In return he offers healing or blessings.

Appearance

Standing 8' tall, Irtano is an imposing figure with gray skin and vertical curling patterns of red and orange over his entire body; he wears a long mohawk of deep ruddy red hair; he is never without his great-axe in hand; various pelts adorn his body like trophies

Expressions

"We always have better things to do and this situation would suggest so"; "I've no time for petty squabbles - strength and courage absolves us of such frivolities"; "An age of enlightenment is upon us and it will require strength of body and character";

Mannerisms

Unless in combat, Irtano moves slowly and deliberately; He uses his touch gently with most and often reaches out an imposing hand to reassure others;

Motivations

This talented giant is far from modest and is always seeking others' celebrations of his strength and prowess. He is also inherently motivated to promote and support the talents and skills of others.

Passions

Justice; Feats of strength and courage; Irtano is a self-proclaimed chef and has a passion for finer foods; he enjoys helping struggling farmers with their farmwork

BACKGROUND STORY

The Goliaths of Gond'Qor are known as devout followers of Re, th God of Hooves and Horns [Any Cent Goliath Deity]. These religious peop promote strength and fortitude in th followers and advocate for supporti the strengths and good in others. Raised in this complex ritualistic community, Irtano developed a stro set of powers, abilities, and skills, a an even stronger set of ethics about how to treat himself and others. Thi also imbued him with high expectations as to how others ough treat him.The Order of Re have set missionary goals whereby they send accomplished acolytes or into the Realms to aid in building up the 'lesser-thans' and promote their code of interconnected support. Irta was selected as one such acolyte at sent forth to display his strength an abilities and to promote the Order's code of a Realm-wide brotherhood of strength and support.
